Dear Friend,

As we celebrate Memorial Day today, I would like to ask you to join me in thanking our veterans for their service and dedication. America's soldiers and veterans have served with honor, bravery, and valor.

They have stood on the front lines in defense of our nation, and today is an opportunity to thank them for this dedication.

It is especially important today to acknowledge the tremendous service of Pennsylvania troops in Iraq and Afghanistan. Over 9,600 Pennsylvania soldiers are currently serving in Iraq and Afghanistan. Sadly, 131 Pennsylvania soldiers have given their lives and 861 others have been wounded while deployed in Iraq and Afghanistan. We must not forget the commitment and courage shown by these men and women.

As the daughter of a Korean War veteran, I take very personally my responsibility to ensure that our troops receive the respect that their service has earned them. In Congress, I have been a steadfast supporter of our men and women in uniform.

I hope that you join me today in taking a moment to thank our veterans and soldiers for their service.

Thank you,

Congresswoman Allyson Schwartz
